

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
EASTERN DIVISION

Deborah Johnson,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 2:15-cv-2525

Carolyn W. Colvin, Acting Commissioner of the Social Security Administration,

Judge Michael H. Watson

Defendant.

ORDER

On June 29, 2016, Magistrate Judge Jolson, to whom this case was referred pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) and General Order No. 14-01, filed a Report and Recommendation ("R&R"), ECF No. 29, concerning the disposition of Deborah Johnson's ("Plaintiff") Complaint, ECF No. 3, in this social security case. The R&R recommended reversing the decision of the Social Security Administration and remanding the case to the Commissioner and the Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") because the ALJ erred in affording Plaintiff's treating physician opinions little weight. R&R 8-11, ECF No. 29.

Judge Jolson notified the parties of their right to file objections to the R&R pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1) and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72(b). Id. at 12. Judge Jolson specifically advised the parties that the failure to object to the R&R within fourteen days would result in a waiver of the right to de novo review by the District Judge. Id. at 17. The deadline for filing such objections has passed, and no objections were filed.

Having received no objections, the Court ADOPTS the R&R, ECF No. 29, REVERSES the decision of the Commissioner of Social Security, and REMANDS this matter to the Commissioner and the ALJ pursuant to Sentence 4 of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g) for further consideration.

The Clerk shall terminate the case.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

MICHAEL H. WATSON, JUDGE
